

Escapism

When I walk along the beach
I pick up algae
I make scrubs of them

I like to think that I was born in a shell

I meet up with underwater species
I tend to speak to them

I pretend I have fins too

Swim up

I need to breathe

There is no way out of yourself